From the Institute for Financial Literacy

BUDGET CHALLENGE® Road Test for Personal Finance®

Budget Challenge Road Test By: David Buten & Palmira Buten

Budget Challenge: Road Test for Personal Finance was chosen as Education Program of the Year: Children, Money Management in 2015.

They offer two separate challenges for high schoolers and college students.

The high school curriculum features instructor facilitated programs, while the college challenge utilizes a self guided curriculum. Challenges focus on topics including:

banking, payroll, retirement investing, building credit, credit cards, loans/debt, student loans, and personal income taxes and forms.

Each year, the Institute for Financial Literacy presents the EIFLE Awards at the Annual Conference on Financial Education. EIFLE Awards recognize individuals and organizations that have shown exceptional innovation, dedication and commitment to the field of Financial Education.

The Annual Conference on Financial Education provides professional development opportunities for individuals who work with financial literacy education. The Conference offers attendees the opportunity to learn about current trends, develop funding strategies and advance the cause of financial education.
