

2017 EIFLE WINNER

From the Institute for Financial Literacy

2017 Legacy Award of the Year Cairine Wilson

Cairine Wilson helped lead the development of CPA Canada's Financial Literacy program. This community centered program has a volunteer network of over 11,000 CPA's who volunteer their time to deliver free financial educational sessions. Cairine was appointed to the National Steering Committee on Financial Literacy by the Government of Canada where she helped implement "Canada's National Strategy for Financial Literacy– Count me in, Canada."

Each year, the Institute for Financial Literacy presents the EIFLE Awards at the Annual Conference on Financial Education. EIFLE Awards recognize individuals and organizations that have shown exceptional innovation, dedication and commitment to the field of Financial Education.

The Annual Conference on Financial Education provides professional development opportunities for individuals who work with financial literacy education. The Conference offers attendees the opportunity to learn about current trends, develop funding strategies and advance the cause of financial education.

What we learn with pleasure we never forget.
