

2017 EIFLE WINNER

From the Institute for Financial Literacy

econlowdown
click, teach, engage.

2016 REVISED EDITION

MAKING PERSONAL FINANCE DECISIONS

Children's Education Program of the Year: General

Making Personal Financial Decisions and Page One Focus on Finance: Understanding and Application

Created by: Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis and Minnesota Council on Economic Education

Interested in teaching Financial Literacy to your students but are limited by time and money? Here's your all in one resource! This program teaches valuable personal finance lessons grounded in economic theory. Curriculum is focused on financed, a bi-monthly essay on current topics and events. Units include real life ways to think economically, how to earn income and paying taxes.

Find out more about their program by visiting their website here: <https://www.stlouisfed.org/education>

Each year, the Institute for Financial Literacy presents the EIFLE Awards at the Annual Conference on Financial Education. EIFLE Awards recognize individuals and organizations that have shown exceptional innovation, dedication and commitment to the field of Financial Education.

The Annual Conference on Financial Education provides professional development opportunities for individuals who work with financial literacy education. The Conference offers attendees the opportunity to learn about current trends, develop funding strategies and advance the cause of financial education.

What we learn with pleasure we never forget.

- Alfred Mercier

Take a Look at our EIFLE Hall of Fame:

<http://eifleawards.org/>