2018 ADULT EDUCATION PROGRAM OF THE YEAR: MONEY MANAGEMENT

Adult Financial Literacy Library Program

The purpose of the Adult Financial Literacy Library Program is to educate consumers on various household money management topics and issues through their local library. Sessions are between 1-1.5 hours and highly interactive and engaging. Consumers walk away from the session with more information, practical tips and techniques, as well as resources to take home and share with their family and friends. Participants also have the opportunity to share their own experience with money, learn from other participants and their successes and discuss and brainstorm challenges. The program started in 2013 and has grown over the past few years and is now in Alberta, British Columbia and Ontario.

Each year, the Institute for Financial Literacy presents the EIFLE Awards at the Annual Conference on Financial Education. EIFLE Awards recognize individuals and organizations that have shown exceptional innovation, dedication and commitment to the field of Financial Education.

The Annual Conference on Financial Education provides professional development opportunities for individuals who work with financial literacy education. The Conference offers attendees the opportunity to learn about current trends, develop funding strategies and advance the cause of financial education.
