

EIFLE™ (Excellence In Financial Literacy Education™) Awards

Presented by the Institute for Financial Literacy®

Legacy

About the EIFLE Awards:

The Excellence In Financial Literacy Education Awards were created to acknowledge innovation, dedication and a strong commitment to financial literacy education.

Nominations for the 2018 EIFLE Awards are open to the general public. Recipients will be honored at the Awards Dinner to be held on April 09, 2018 during the Annual Conference on Financial Education in Orlando, FL. Award categories include Educator, Organization, Book, Education Program, Field Research, Instructional Game and Legacy. Self nominations are acceptable.

The Legacy Award honors (one or more of the following):

- Financial professionals who have had a long standing impact on financial literacy education;
- Education programs that have set or advanced the industry standard;
- Organizations with a track record of success promoting financial literacy in the communities they serve; and/or
- Tools, products and services that have changed long term attitudes and behaviors about managing money.

The above criteria are meant to be used as guidelines for all entries. Nominees in all categories will be judged upon relevance to the criteria and individual merits. Award entries will be reviewed by a committee of judges appointed by the Institute for Financial Literacy. The Institute for Financial Literacy reserves the right to refrain from offering an award in any category in any given year. The decision of the judges is final. There is no limit to the number of submissions provided they fit the criteria. Current employees of the Institute for Financial Literacy, or close relatives of such employees, are not eligible. All submitted materials become the property of the Institute for Financial Literacy. The Institute for Financial Literacy cannot assume responsibility for nominations lost or delayed in transit. Void where prohibited.
