About the EIFLE Awards:

The Excellence In Financial Literacy Education Awards were created to acknowledge innovation, dedication and a strong commitment to financial literacy education.

Nominations for the 2019 EIFLE Awards are open to the general public. Self nominations are acceptable.

Recipients will be honored at the Awards Dinner to be held on March 25, 2019 during the Annual Conference on Financial Education in Denver, CO.

The Organization of the Year is one that:

- Offers financial literacy education, though it need not be a financial literacy organization by mission;
- Has earned the respect of peer organizations and the communities it serves;
- Inspires individuals participating in its programs to learn;
- Utilizes quality financial literacy education materials; and
- Is committed to the ongoing professional development of its financial literacy educators.

Instructions for Organization Nominations:

- 1. Complete Nomination Package: Please attach one completed package for each Organization nominated. Be sure to indicate the Organization Award category for which you are applying.
- 2. Complete Questionnaire: Please complete it in its entirety. Nominations received with incomplete questionnaires will not be considered.

APPLICATION PACKAGE DUE BY 5PM EST, JANUARY 18, 2019

The above criteria are meant to be used as guidelines for all entries. Nominees in all categories will be judged upon relevance to the criteria and individual merits. Award entries will be reviewed by a committee of judges appointed by the Institute for Financial Literacy. The Institute for Financial Literacy reserves the right to refrain from offering an award in any category in any given year. The decision of the judges is final. There is no limit to the number of submissions provided they fit the criteria. Current employees of the Institute for Financial Literacy, or close relatives of such employees, are not eligible. All submitted materials become the property of the Institute for Financial Literacy. The Institute for Financial Literacy cannot assume responsibility for nominations lost or delayed in transit. Void where prohibited.
