Children's Education Program of the Year: Financial Responsibility Decision Making

$martPath is a free online financial program designed for students from 1st to 6th grade. It is teacher led program containing animated videos, in-class activities and assessments. Interactive stories within each lesson engage young students in economic and financial literacy concepts which can be easily integrated across all core subjects.

From the Economics Center for Education & Research

"Developed by leading practitioners working hand-in-hand with Ohio teachers, $martPath provides simple, fun lessons that bring economic and financial education to life in your classroom. $martPath units teach students about personal financial responsibility (such as saving, prudent spending, and prioritizing needs and wants) through grade-appropriate, curriculum-aligned, interactive lessons."

What we learn with pleasure we never forget.
