

2017 EIFLE WINNER

From the Institute for Financial Literacy

Adult Education Program: Money Management

Survive and Thrive: Move Ahead Financially after losing your job won the 2017 EIFLE award for Adult Education Program of the Year in the category of Money Management.

This book encompasses all aspects of how to move forward after losing your job. Topics discussed within the program include: The psychological, mental and Emotional Toll, Employment Law, Finding a New Job, Financing your life, Dealing with Debt, and examples of resumes. Starting over with a new employer or career choice can be made easier, and more effective by knowing where to start and what to consider in order to land your dream job!

Download the book from CPA Canada online for FREE!

CPA CANADA

Chartered Professional Accounts of Canada “conducts research into current and emerging business issues and supports the setting of accounting, auditing and assurance standards for business, not-for-profit organizations and government. It also includes guidance on control and governance, publishes professional literature and develops certification and continuing education programs” - Catherine Crawford from CPA

What we learn with pleasure we never forget.

- Alfred Mercier

Have a nomination for this years EIFLE awards? Submit your nomination here:

<http://eifleawards.org/wordpress/submit-a-nomination/>