

2016 EIFLE WINNER

From the Institute for Financial Literacy

Book of the Year: Adult, General

The Procrastinator's Guide to Retirement

By David Trahair, CPA, CA

Know someone who is looking to retire in ten years or less? “The Procrastinator’s Guide to Retirement” is a step-by-step guidebook on how to do just that! It features practical ways to track spending, reduce debt, and improve investments. Start yourself on the path of retirement no matter what stage you are in life. According to Goodreads “David Trahair is renowned for his ability to explain the often-confusing world of personal finance in language the average reader can understand. Consumers and professionals alike appreciate the fact that his advice is ‘product neutral’ as he does not sell any products nor does he represent any financial institution.”

Find the book here: <https://www.amazon.ca/Procrastinators-Guide-Retirement-Retire-Years/dp/1553859685>

Each year, the Institute for Financial Literacy presents the EIFLE Awards at the Annual Conference on Financial Education. EIFLE Awards recognize individuals and organizations that have shown exceptional innovation, dedication and commitment to the field of Financial Education.

The Annual Conference on Financial Education provides professional development opportunities for individuals who work with financial literacy education. The Conference offers attendees the opportunity to learn about current trends, develop funding strategies and advance the cause of financial education.

What we learn with pleasure we never forget.

- Alfred Mercier

Learn about and register for the conference here:

<http://acfeonline.org/>